27 Movement – Rainy Day Practise

Da Yan translates to the great bird and is an ancient Qigong practise that was developed by Daoist Masters about 1700 years ago in the sacred Kunlun Mountains in the Northern Himalayan area, south west China. Its healing legacy has been passed down through many generations and Simon is an initiated student of the 28th lineage holder Grand Master Chen Chuan Gang.

The movements represent the flight of Wild Geese and it helps expel toxins from the body, cleanse the meridians, improve blood flow and draw in and circulate fresh Qi. In this one day workshop Simon will share the rainy day practise. A shortened form of the 1st 64 movement set, which can be practised in a smaller confined space.

With regular practise Qigong helps restore energy, reduce stress and anxiety and help individuals maintain a healthy and active life. Simon conducts many retreats and workshops throughout Australia and has been leading specialist training tours to China to learn from masters at the source since 1999. He is also the author of numerous books, DVDs and meditation CDs about the ancient Chinese healing arts
